01 PROFILE

I'm Dhoni, the front-end developer who turns design ideas into pixel-perfect and responsive websites that wow user. My skill set includes a deep understanding of HTML, CSS, and JavaScript, with proficiency in using libraries like React.js and frameworks such as Next.js. This enables me to not only create stunning designs but also enhance website performance. I am adept at collaborating with designers, back-end developers, and stakeholders to deliver projects that exceed expectations.
